Chapter II Shares

Article 4 When the Company is a shareholder of other limited companies, the restriction of not more than 40% of the Company's paid-up capital as stipulated in Article 13 of the Company Act shall not apply to the total amount of re-investment.

Article 5 The total capital of the Company is Four Billion New Taiwan Dollars (NT$4,000,000,000) divided into four hundred million (400,000,000) shares with a par value of Ten New Taiwan Dollars (NT$10). Six Hundred Million (NT$600,000,000) divided into sixty million (60,000,000) shares with a par value of Ten New Taiwan Dollars (NT$10) will be reserved for bond with attached warrants and exercising the stock option of employee stock option certificates. Seasoned (second) equity offering (SEO) may be issued at a premium. The nominal capital is Four Billion New Taiwan Dollars (NT$4,000,000,000) to be issued by/in installments by law through Board.

Article 5-1 In accordance with Article 56-1 of the Regulations Governing the Offering and Issuance of Securities by Securities Issuers and Article 10-1 of the Regulations Governing Share Repurchase by Exchange-Listed and OTC-Listed Companies, the Company may issue employee stock options (ESO) at a price lower than the closing price of the Company's common stock on the issuance date or transfer shares to employees at a price below the average of the actual buy-back price with an approval made by shareholders representing over two-thirds of the voting shares in a meeting of shareholders attended by shareholders representing over one-half of the total issued shares.

Article 5-2 The Company may transfer the treasury stock purchased in accordance with the Company Act to employees of controlled or subordinate companies meeting specific requirements.

Employees qualified for receiving the employee stock options may include employees of controlled or subordinate companies meeting specific requirements.

When the Company issues new shares, employees of controlled or subordinate companies meeting specific requirements are qualified for subscription.

When the Company issues restricted stock awards (RSA), employees of controlled or subordinate companies meeting specific requirements are qualified for subscription.

Article 6 The Company may issue name-bearing shares without printing share certificates. However, the Company shall register such shares on a centralized securities depository enterprise.

When printing stocks, such stocks shall be signed or sealed by the directors representing the Company and issued by banks permitted by law to serve as registrars for issues of stocks or bonds.

- Article 7 Registration for transfer of shares shall be suspended within sixty days before the date of the annual general meeting of shareholders and within thirty days before the date of the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, or within five days before the day on which dividends, bonuses, or other benefits are scheduled to be paid by the Company.
- Article 8 When issuing new shares, the Company shall prioritize 15% of the total amount of new shares for employee subscription. However, priority subscription by employees shall not apply for new shares, convertible corporate bonds, corporate bonds with warrants, employee stock options or stock options converted as shares for a merger or acquisition.
- Article 9 When recruiting technical personnel in response to operational needs, with the consent of the Board, directors may yield part of the employee stock options to specific candidates to improve corporate operations.

Chapter III Meeting of Shareholders

- Article 10 Meetings of shareholders include the annual general meeting (AGM) of shareholders and extraordinary general meeting (EGM) of shareholders. The Board shall convene an AGM by law each year within six months after the end of a fiscal year. EGM may be convened by law as necessary. The Company may hold the meeting of shareholders through videoconferencing or by other means as announced by the central competent authorities.
- Article 11 Shareholders unable to attend a meeting of shareholders for any reason may assign a proxy to represent them and state the scope of authorization in a signed or sealed power of attorney.
- Article 12 Each shareholder of the Company is entitled to one vote per share, except for shareholders restricted from voting or having no voting rights as stipulated in Article 179, paragraph 2, of the Company Act.

- Article 13 Except the Company Act otherwise requires, resolutions of the meetings of shareholders shall be made by shareholders representing over one-half of the voting rights in a meeting of shareholders attended by shareholders representing over one-half of the total issued shares.

Chapter IV Board of Directors and Audit Committee

- Article 14 The Board of the Company seats five to seven directors. Each director enjoys an office of three years and is eligible for a second term.

The Company shall reserve a minimum of two of the above seats or one-fifth of all seats for independent directors. Independent directors and non-independent directors shall be elected at the same time, and the seats elect shall be calculated individually.

The candidate nomination system as stipulated in Article 192-1 of the Company Act shall apply to the election of both directors and independent directors.

Independent directors may exercise their powers and comply with the requirements as stipulated in the applicable laws and regulations.

The shares held by all directors shall be regulated in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the competent authorities.

The Company establishes the Audit Committee with all independent directors in accordance with Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act to carry out the duties of supervisors as stipulated in the Company Act, Securities and Exchange Act, and other applicable laws and regulations.

- Article 14-1 The Board shall hold at least one board meeting each quarter. When convening a board meeting, the objectives of the meeting shall be stated in the meeting notice delivered to all directors seven days in advance. When there is an emergency, however, extraordinary meetings may be held at any time. The board meeting notice as stated in the preceding paragraph may be made in writing, by phone, by fax, or by email.
- Article 15 One chairperson shall be elected from among directors with the consent of over one-half of directors in a board meeting attended by over two-thirds of all directors to represent the Company externally. When the chairperson is on leave or unable to exercise his/her powers, the proxy shall be assigned in accordance with Article 208 of the Company Act.
- Article 16 Unless the Company Act otherwise requires, a board meeting shall be convened by the chairperson, and resolutions shall be made with the consent of over one-half of directors in a board meeting attended by over one-half of all directors. Directors unable to attend a board meeting may assign other directors to represent them, provided that the one-for-one principle shall apply.
- Article 16-1 The Company shall purchase the director and officer (D&O) liability insurance for the scope of services of each director during his/her office.
- Article 17 The Board is authorized to pay the remuneration for directors in accordance with their involvement in and contribution to corporate operations and with reference to the pay standard in the industry, regardless of operating gains or losses. If there is net profit, rewards shall be distributed in accordance with Article 20.

Chapter V Officers

Article 18 The Company shall hire a number of officers whose appointment, dismissal, and remuneration shall be subject to the Company Act.

Chapter VI Accounting

Article 19 At the end of each fiscal year, the Board shall produce the following documents and submit them to the AGM for ratification in accordance with the legal procedures:

- (1) Business report
- (2) Financial statements
- (3) Proposal for earnings distribution or loss compensation.

Article 20 After deducting the annual remuneration for employees and directors, the Company shall appropriate a minimum of three percent of net income before tax as rewards for employees and a maximum of five percent as rewards for directors. When there are accumulative deficits, however, the amount for compensation shall first be reserved.

The proposal for distribution of rewards for employees and directors shall be approved by resolution of over one-half of directors attending a board meeting attended by over two-thirds of all directors and reported to AGM. The Board shall make a resolution to determine the distribution of rewards for employees either in stock or in cash.

The Board shall be authorized to determine the specific requirements for the employees of controlled companies or subsidiaries to receive the employee reward. The reward for directors shall be distributed in cash only.

Article 20-1 The net profit after tax, if any, after the account is closed and other entries shall be included in the unappropriated earnings of the year and distributed in the following order:

- (1) Compensation for accumulated deficits.

- (2) Appropriation of 10% as the legal reserve (except when the accumulated amount of the legal reserve equals the amount of the paid-in capital).
- (3) Appropriation or reversion of special reserve by law.
- (4) The remaining balance, if any, shall be combined with the accumulated beginning unappropriated earnings for the Board to formulate a proposal for allocation as dividends and submit to the AGM for resolution.

The Company shall authorize the Board to decide on distributing part or all of the dividends and profit sharing in cash using the legal reserve or additional paid-in capital and report to AGM in accordance with Articles 240 and 241 of the Company Act.

The Company's operations are growing steadily, and earnings are distributed primarily in cash dividends. They can also be distributed in stock dividends. However, the proportion of stock dividend distribution shall not exceed 50% of the total amount of dividends in the year.
